Dear Frances,
First, I want to say
I love you and always will.
You not going to reminisce,
cause that makes me cry. So, I propose; live this life on Earth with the intent of finding our final place. Each thing we do he done in a way to glorify our Creator. Paul said that now he was saved and he could do anything he wanted to; there were just some things that he didn't want to do. This is how I feel about the things Christians "don't do." Christians can do anything they want to. And having a Christian friend like you makes it a whole lot of fun.

May God

Bless,

Frances,
You come from a long line of warriors.
But I must admit
you are the nicest
one of all. I might surprise you and come down and see you.

Frances

I really feel close to you this year and I will miss you a great deal
next year. Band was real good (dispute state) I will always remember you + I love you "a lot" I will pray for all good things to come together for you as you go to college. be good, if you can't be good Be careful!

Frances,

Well it's about time to end it all.
As I look back over the years, I remember many great times together. We sure had fun in Trig and all these fun classes.
Let's stay friends ~~in~~ next year and the years to come at Barna.

I really had a good year and I'm glad you were a part of it. I still can't believe that it's just about over. We didn't have any classes together but I've enjoyed the times we've spent together. Stay Sweet, Be kind & GOD Bless

Frances,

How long has it been? Dang, with band, church, choir, and about five billion classes at school, I just can't remember.
Well, Frances, you've never failed to break my heart. I bet you don't know how many times I came over to your house at night
just to stare up at your window. I bet you don't know how many times I've followed your footsteps, throwing a kiss on every one.
I bet you don't know how many times I've gotten the exact same lunch you did, hoping you would notice. Well, you didn't, you just broke my heart. (If I don't stop, somebody else is going to break my nose, too.) Love, Bent

Frances,

you're something else. I know I kid you all the time calling you a scatterbrain, dingbat, or whatever,
but it's only because I worry about you. All those parties you attend may-may they could be detrimental to your health. After all you are still a spry lassie, in the prime of your youth. I'll tell you we had lots of fun together in band. You were not like all the other twigs. My only regret is we never went to a party together.
Next year you may invite me
down to some of your wild parties.
Until then take care of yourself,
don't let my kind of evil rub
off on you.

Love you always Dennis

Frances,

It's really been great knowing
you. You are a sweet and good looking girl.
I will always remember those great jokes you told. Come and see this and that smile and you will go far in life. Love, Jack

Frances,
To a sweet person who has so much going for yourself. I have enjoyed getting to know you better this year with our gossip session in the Franco,

 I can't say it's been nice knowing you cause it hasn't!
 It has been fantastic to know you! We never see each other anymore though. (Which is no great loss to you!) I hope I see more of you in the future
 which will probably be impossible since you're going to college
 maybe I can come down & visit you sometime. I hope all your dreams & ambitions come true in your lifetime. I'm sure they will. I hope you never change.
 You have a great personality, face, body, etc. etc. I can't go in about that in your yearbook cause it wouldn't be acceptable! I love you!

to love each other?

Fran,
This has really been a good year.
I guess, I'm glad we got to be together
this year. Remember last year Concert Band and this year State - you've always come thru when I was down.
I hope you realize how much you mean to me & how hard next year will be in the flute section & in band without you.

Next ^{year} you'll be gone, but not too far to come see us occasionally.
Don't forget your old alma mater & me! Good luck - you're a dip, but you'll make it.

DOING THINGS OUR WAY

HEY BABY! (Brian, F², Phaed, MISS SORORITY 1977)

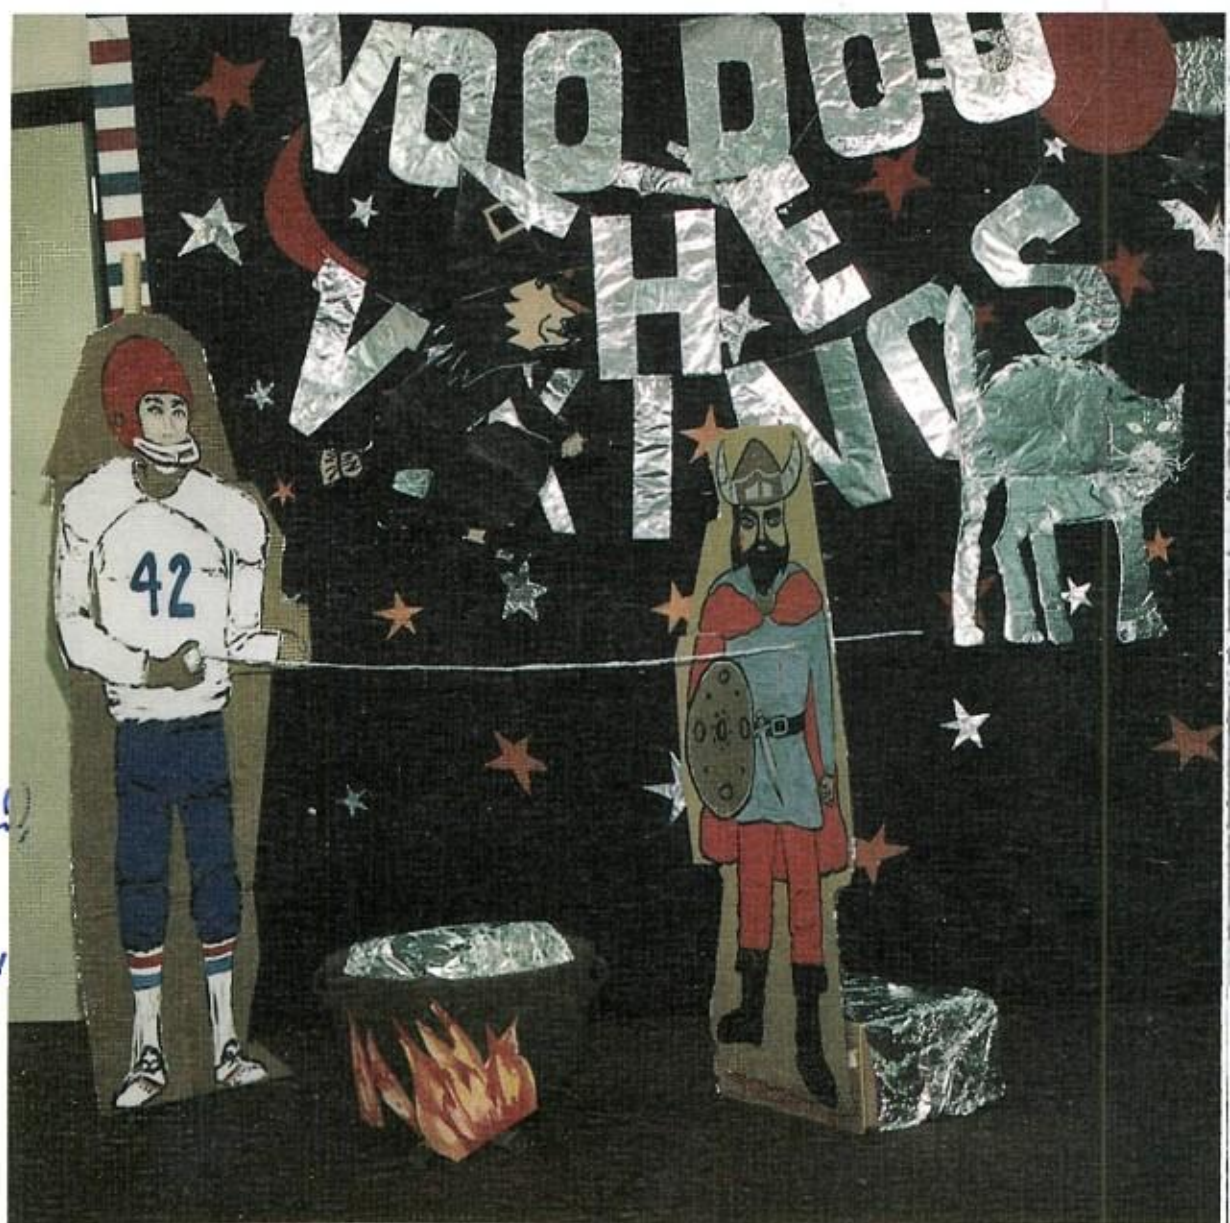

This may come as a shock to you, but I don't know what to say. Best friends for 6 years! We've been through so much together (good times along with the bad). I could just sit here and write about STYLE all the CRAZY, STUPID things we've done but ~~of~~ the yearbook isn't long enough. So I'll just name a few.

HOMECOMING PATRIOT

Do you remember Mardi Gras? I was screaming for you & jumping up & down & whooping & hollering. All the zks's were giving me the dirtiest looks & I was going, "That's my best friend! That's my best friend!" All of that was before they announced that you won it! I went wild(er) afterwards. I'll never forget the times at Eastwood Mall. Getting chased and pulling a Stawky & Hatch through Krunchy Chicken's parking lot, having that rednecking contest.

with Scott & Mike (we smeared them!) and chasing those girls all over the place! Remember NOV. 27, 1975 — Black Boys concert. That was fun! What about your lead-out last year! You were hilarious! But then, again, what about your lead-out this year. I guess I was pretty hilarious. Remember when I was so upset and you & Jordan stuck by me and made me feel so much better!

I was so upset and you & Jordan stuck by me and made me feel so much better! You were great! I'll never forget that! Do you remember Homecoming when you & Jordan, Suzanne & Steve, and me & Lee all went to 1776? That was a blast! Interim was great! Going out to lunch every day! Remember that day a whole bunch of us went to Tuscaloosa! — and somebody almost got left here because she was one hour late meeting the rest of us. And that day we went to Auburn with Pam. Do you remember when we went with Holland + Dianna to "underground Homewood" (Hm, Hm) I sure am glad you spent the night that night! Thanks for listening to all of my boo-hoing about Scott. I knew if I ever needed a shoulder during those months you'd be there (even though you were caught in the middle) but I'd have to lend you mine because when one is crying the other can't help but cry. We know so much about each other it's scary.

There are tons upon tons of other escapades I could write about but that's enough of that. It's not like we're saying good-bye, though, because we'll be together this summer + at BAMA next year (I hope Mr. Morrow + Mr. Barfield read that!) Frances, we've shared so much it's impossible to put into words. We've laughed together, cried together, hugged each other, screamed at each other, encouraged each other, cussed each other out (when necessary), in other words, we've shared a friendship that's rare, special, and deeper than most! "We need to have people who mean something to us, people to whom we can turn knowing that being with them is coming home." Thanks for being one of those people! I love you, Frances!

GIRLS' STATE AND BOYS' STATE

Bert Pitts and Mary Beth Randall were elected by the faculty to represent Homewood High School at Boys' State and Girls' State. Sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, Boys' State and Girls' State involve an in-depth study of our government. Mary Beth was elected talent chairman for her city, and she was also appointed to the State Board of Corrections. Bert served on the City Council and the State House of Representatives. These were experiences which provided the opportunities to meet new people, to learn the workings of state government, and to create many unforgettable memories.

Frances,

Remember 8th grade. Me, you and Emily (Mrs. McRae) me and Lady ou and James. I'm glad that we became friends that year. Mrs.
Tolbert will never forget our 3rd period. And Ms. Mazer is a 4*2!! Frances, I'm so glad that we have finally graduated. I'll never forgive you for going to the prom with that guy from Alabama. So I just want to say BEHAVE. Stay like me and you'll go far.

Love, Skip

Frances,

The last few years have been really great. You've been really great — giving me rides home in the rain and all. You've really tried hard to be funny; When did we come together?
too bad.

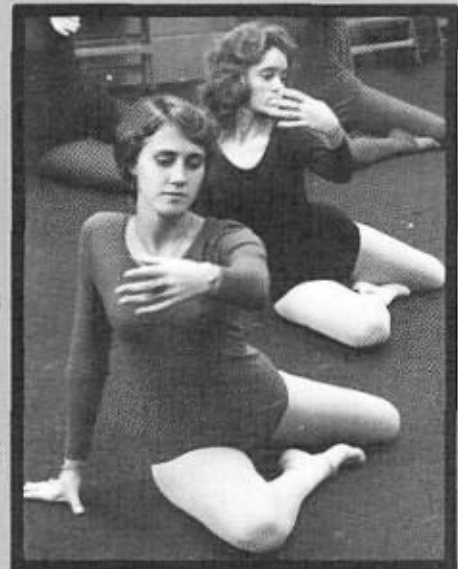

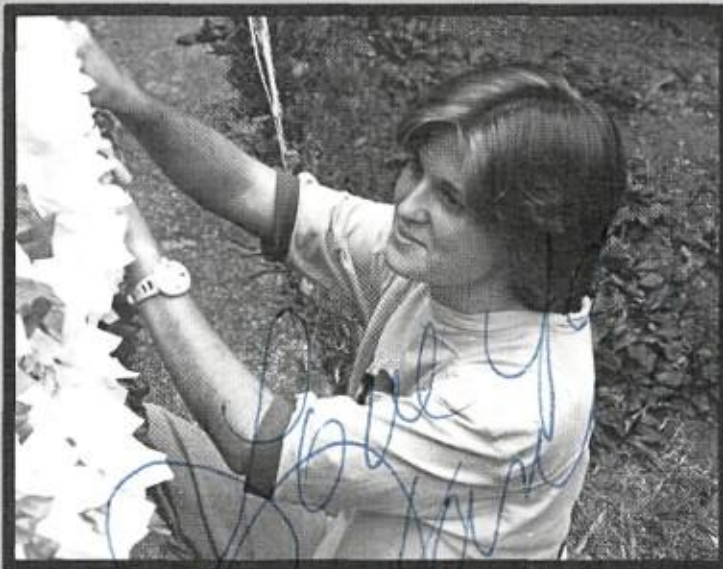

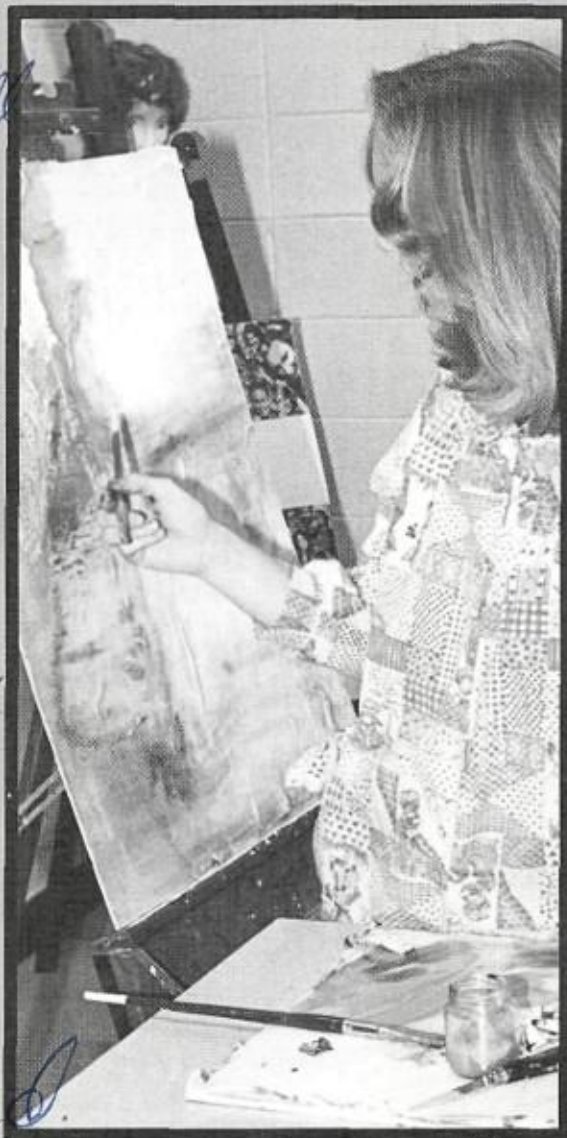

I hope you'll go far; but with a mind like that I don't know how.

Seriously, it's been great getting to know you. Thanks for being a friend.

Love you always Robert

Frances,
 I say stupid! I hope you had 4 great years at the High School! You know I'm gonna miss you next year!! You better bet I'm gonna come see you at "wherever" you are going we've had some good times huh? I don't want to go to all that "REMEMBER WHEN"

I know you can all by yourself. You're a great friend and "BIG SIS". I know I can tell you anything and that's a really good feeling! Just remember that I'm always here if you need me for anything. Stay crazy and sweet forever!!! Stay outta' trouble!!! I Love you,

P.S. PLEASE WRITE ME EVERY WEEK!!
 YOU'D BETTER

When did we begin to love each other?

To be a Freshman at Homewood High School is a new and frightening experience for most. But in a short time, one realizes it's not so bad after all. The day we entered the doors of the school, we felt welcome. We are all looking forward to the next three years and hope we can show the leadership that has been shown to us.

Being a sophomore is finally having someone younger than us to pick on, slaving on our first term paper, and getting our Big Chance to wreck the Driver's Ed. cars. But most of all, it is a time to learn and grow.

JUNIOR CLASS

OFFICERS: Tracey Schoettlin — Secretary; DeeDee Donaldson — Activity Chairman; Tammy Holley — Vice President; Mark Tate — President; Karen McCain — Treasurer.

Being a Junior means getting your class ring, learning the Murphy method, getting out at 2:00 P.M., not having to take P.E., and never being called last to a pep rally. Being a Junior also brings on more responsibilities, but that's not all bad because we also get more privileges than before. Being a Junior is a lot of fun and I hope everybody gets as much out of it as they possibly can.

Fran,
I've really missed
you this year. I really wish we had been as close as last year but I still feel we're close even though I never see ya. I still love you. We've had so many, many good times.
I hope we can get only closer this summer and when you're away at school you better remember to write me.
Your senior picture is GREAT! I hope mine looks that good.
Come Back
to choir. We miss you!!

You're a great Flagger in the band. I was proud of you at all those Football games.
And Miss Sorority!
WOW!!!

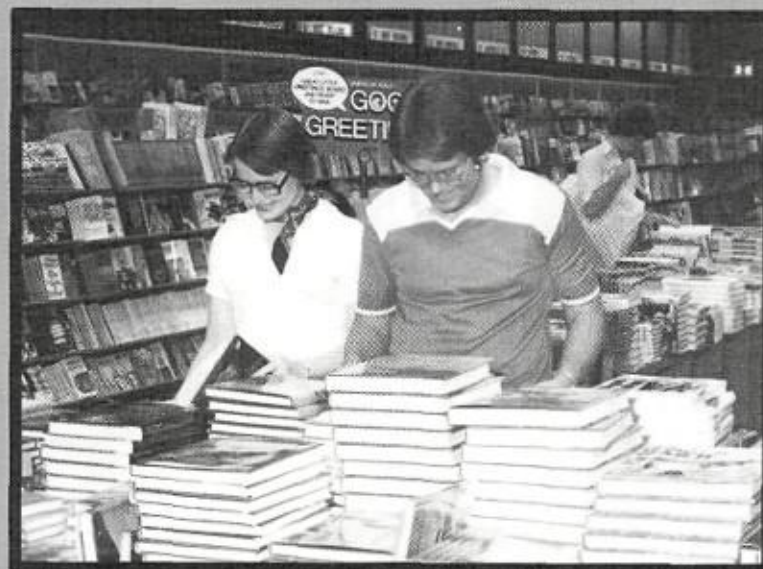

"by mouse"

You are truly a good person you really care. I use to call you when I was down cause you always made me feel better.

I Love You Sandra
Denman

*When did we learn
the value of a dollar?*

ADVERTISEMENTS

Frances,
 Well, the year is almost over
 And I can't believe it. I'm glad though. We have really bothered that homeroom teacher of ours haven't we. Mrs. Mann is crazy. Although I haven't known you that long I really have enjoyed your friendship. It has meant so much to me this year. Stay the way you are and maybe you can get somewhere. Just kidding! Good Luck. Hope to see you sometime this summer.

Be good,

Lynn

Central Bank's Campus Plan makes college an occupation you can afford.

Join now and you won't even have to go through registration.

As a Campus Plan member you'll get:

Unlimited checking—your checks will have your school emblem on the cover, so you can show your colors when you pay your bills.

Cash Transfers—allows you to get money from home quickly and safely.

Credit Checking—write a check for more money than you have in your account, without taking up a collection.

Campus Plan T-Shirt—a T-shirt to put on your back, in case you just used yours to pay your tuition.

Another Book—but this one can really help you with your finances, both now and later.

All these benefits for only $1.50 per month. Plus some other things that help college students get started in the financial world. Come by your nearest Central Bank and ask, we'll be glad to sign you up.

Stonewall Was His Name . . .

He earned it on Henry House Hill, near Manassas Junction, in July of 1861. The largest American armies ever assembled, Union and Confederates, jockeyed for position on Bull Run Creek and around the Manassas rail facilities; over many square miles of Virginia countryside. The Federal army crashed across Bull Run Creek in an effort to break the Confederate center and begin a drive on Richmond. Blocking their way, on Henry House Hill, were 9,800 infantrymen under Jackson, Bee, Barlow, and Wade Hampton. 25,000 Federal infantrymen stormed the hill. The 33rd Virginia charged from its pine brush cover and wiped out a Federal battery which had been raking the defending Confederates with cannister and ball. Jackson guided his men into the fray, and at the height of the action, when Bee's men were being pushed from the hill, the rallying cry was heard, "Look, there stands Jackson like a stone wall. Rally behind the Virginians, men!" From that time forward, men forgot Jackson's name was Thomas Jonathan, and he was ever afterward called "Stonewall."

In 1866, the Stonewall Insurance Company was founded in the name of the men who refused to yield his ground. At this time, we pause to look back over a century of service to Americans all over the land. A land made stronger and richer by the events of that July afternoon Henry House Hill.

TOMORROW

I am in
The Halls of Homewood.

I am in corridors,
Both noisy and silent
But you cannot see me.

I cannot sign
Your Yearbook although I am in every page —
For I am the Spirit
And Soul of Homewood
And the Class of '77.

I move with
The Tides of Time.
I come and go.

In the days to come
Slowly, bit by bit
You will wrench a piece
Of yourself off to leave
And as you leave your sorrow
So will some of my Spirit
Fill in those vacuums
And leave with you.

Today I hear you
Ask your questions
Of What? and When?
They will be fulfilled . . .

Tomorrow.

Frances,

Well, it's our Sr year, thank God! Remember all the band trips (2 Knoxville & 2 Ft Walton that we've taken? Not to mention state competitions. Try to stay innocent when you go to U of But most of all, try. (Know what I mean?) Anyway, it's great. Don't forget me — Love always,

Class of '77 Statistics

Believe it or not the Class of 1977 has finally made it. After working 28 hours with numbers, names, and events, I have a few memorable statistics for you.

It has been said that Mr. Norton visited Mrs. Dye's homeroom 68,450 times trying to discover how she kept them quiet. Sherri Hays was late to school only 5 days of each week. Out of 7,320 secrets, Pam Chappell kept only one. This was because she forgot what it was. Jerry Champion told the referees during football and basketball exactly what he thought of them 302,941 times, and this was at each game.

Shari Cottingham did not understand 4,896 jokes and she told 5 of them. Johnny Self was crowned "Mr. Disco" after dancing for 96 hours. The dance contest only lasted 48 hours. Don Traywick busted his lips playing the trombone 451 times although the public only knew of this once. Bill Reneau and John Morse talked to each other on the CB 877 times without knowing it.

Donna Krekelberg wore a dress only 6 times this year. This was the day after each report card. Laura Bass said, "Hey Baby," a total of 12,406 times (each day). The Senior Algebra II class has unanimously voted Ken Crittenden as Mrs. Webber's favorite student. Roy Lee Maguire asked the time 10 times every 5 minutes. Frances Lurie turned red 5,902 times. 4,000 of these were for no excuse. Cassie Sayers sang "Did You Boogie With Your Baby?" 3,961 days continuously.

Miss Bailey called Torri Pruitt 16,028 different names, but "Torri" was not one of them. During Interim McDonald's sold 9 million hamburgers. 8,999,999 of these were to Homewood students. Pam Sumrall has sung 660,439 solos. Now she can complete her new book entitled MY LIFE AS FARRAH NEWTON-JOHN. Dale Dellegar called every girl he knew "Beautiful" 1,682 times. Unfortunately, he only knew 4 girls. Ben Baker and Donna Davis were together 80,801 hours at school. This was only first semester. Chuck Yow looked forward to Miss Bailey's first period class only once. This was the day of their Christmas party. 16,000 girls have confirmed that Gary Begley is good-looking.

Dartland Dunbar decided 920 times that she wanted a 23-carat diamond ring. George Bartle made up 564 excuses not to buy it for her. The SGA counted exactly 12,025 run-off ballots during the first three weeks of school. Coach Miller told 6,910 jokes this year. Too bad they were all the same one.

Harriet Hall got 4,830 extra points in Algebra. She had 100 average to begin with . . . 7,610 people tried to talk Greg Murphy into auditioning for Class Musician and he still didn't do it. Emily Hill counted 23,023 flutter flutters (butterflies) and it wasn't even spring. David Williams said a total of 3 words this year and these were all to Torri. Donna Monte counted $16,502 in the class treasury this year. Unfortunately, it was all counterfeit. Mrs. Mann broke 24 pencils during each class beating on the podium. The Flag Corps used 72,921 rolls of tape before each game. The basketball team recorded 820 reel to reel tapes for warming up.

This could go on for 39.04 pages but I will end it here. Anyway, my 5th pen just ran out of ink. This certainly isn't all the statistics but it was all my 4.8 pens could write.

Class of '77 Will

We the Senior Class of 1977, having beautiful bodies, some soul, being all heart, and having a sound mind, do declare this document to be our last will and testament.

Bert Pitts leaves his ability to be late to Mrs. Tolbert's class and smile his way out of it to anyone who can smile the way he can. Susan Murray leaves her front row seat in Kleine Klub to Lee Ann Stewart. Melvin Hopson leaves his basketball skills to Ed Ramsey. Donna Krekelberg leaves her smart remarks to Karmon Nash. Mrs. Mann's first semester fifth period class leaves her with a headache. Cassie Sayers and Laura Bass leave their Frankenstein masks to Terry Gilliland and Frazer Carr. Julia Hawley leaves a headache to the members of next year's debate team. Mrs. Webber's senior Algebra II class leaves her with a nervous breakdown, sore throat, Bufferin, and Sucrets.

Don Traywick, Bill Reneau, and John Morse leave their numerous stories to anyone who would like to pretend they are buying cars. Jan Holloway leaves her place in the middle of the cheerleader line to Kim Washer. Suzanne Muse leaves her drawing of laughing men and her little green man to the person lucky enough to get her locker. Lisa Webb leaves her place on the Star Spangled Girls' line to her little sister Leslie if she is brave enough to try out. Arnold Pope leaves his ability to be active in sports to Moses. Janice Fuqua is leaving her front row seat in Mrs. Murphy's class to any senior brave enough to take chemistry next year. Gregg Murphy leaves his ability to answer Mrs.

Granberry's question to anyone lucky enough to have her third period. Coneith Hobbs leaves her good grades to her brother, Keelon.

Debbie Colpack leaves Tim Baggett. Miss Perry's Physics class leaves her with calm nerves and an unstable third period. Dolly Potter leaves Mr. Norton her Winnie the Pooh doll. Mrs. Tolbert's third period class leaves her with an insane mind. Cathy Burke leaves her 101 excuses to next year's Advanced Biology class. Frances Lurie leaves her ability (talent??) to pull fire alarms on band trips to Jennifer Haley. Someone is leaving Joe Rumore's famous parking place to any dummy that is fool enough to spend $4,000.00 on a little car. Skip Taylor leaves his size 11 varsity football shoe to Mark Vines. Lee Runyan leaves her unused Mark Eden courses to Jan Branson. Carol Champion leaves her big mouth to a varsity cheerleader next year.

The varsity cheerleaders leave their unused boxes of Figurines to next year's cheerleaders. Skip Taylor and Don Traywick would also like to leave all their Christmas poinsettias to Mrs. Tolbert. Dennis Davidson just wants to leave Mrs. Tolbert. Emily Hill and Frances Lurie leave their urgent and important trips to the University of Alabama to next year's interim class. Shari Cottingham leaves her driving ability to no one, because she has none. Al Ferebee just leaves. Brian Smith leaves to Cindy Cornett and Robin Nance the picture booth at K-Mart. Elizabeth Cooley is greedy, she is taking what she has with her. Greg Roberson leaves his long lunchroom straw to Karmon Nash and Mary Monk. Bill Freeman leaves his "Chicken legs" to Mark Tate. Amy Canale left her two front teeth in the tenth grade. Sixth period Psychology class leaves Mr. Norton with the ability to read and understand Winnie the Pooh. Donna Monte leaves, taking the Senior class money with her. David Williams leaves his shyness to Bobby Johnson. Dale Dellegar leaves his legs to Mrs. Murphy. Joe Traywick leaves his ability to disagree with Mr. Norton to Bo Rozelle. Mickie Cuff leaves her balloons to anyone who needs them. Senior flag corps members leave 25 roles of unused tape to next year's flag corps. Edward Bluemly leaves his leadership to next year's Senior Class President. Laura Bass, Don Traywick, Steve Butler and Dennis Davidson leave all of their for-sale signs to Mr. Morrow.

And finally, we the Senior class of 1977 leave to the class of 1978 the privilege, pride, and responsibility of being a senior of Homewood High School.

Good luck to each and every one of you in your future endeavors.

Class of '77 Prophecy

After spending four exhilarating weeks at the Transcendental Meditation Health Ranch, I am ready and licensed to present a panoramic view of the Class of 1977.

As I walk down the main street of Homewood, I see Mark Hewlett as the owner and embalmer of the "You Stab Em-We Slab Em" Funeral Parlor. Directly next door is Paul's BBQ. It is believed that these establishments are irl cahoots, for many a customer has entered but few make it out.

Two blocks down the street the crowds are already flocking to the grand opening of William and Johnny's Disco Rama. Dancing Doug Barnes, D.J. of the now defunct radio station WCOW will M.C. tonight's star studded entertainment. It is rumored that Melvin Hopson and the Cliff Notes will make a guest appearance. Also appearing tonight will be the comedy duo of Taylor and Murphy. Capping tonight's gala festivities will be Pam Sumrall singing her new hit, "The Way It Was."

Just across the street is a familiar face, Reverend Jonathan Fox, author of the new book, FAITH HEALING IN THREE EASY LESSONS. He has just stepped out of the Last National Bank of Homewood, where Donna Monte presides as President.

On around the corner I see Buddy's Boutique, owned and operated by Buddy Riley and Margie Renta. Glancing down the street to the Auto Cinema, I see the traveling trio of Don Traywick, John Morse, and Bill Reneau have released a new movie, "We Were Teenage Glasspacks" or "I Got My Thrill on Trans Am Hill." Also showing is "The Life and Times of Shirley Temple" starring Carol Champion.

I have just arrived at the new Homewood City Hall, constructed by Mike Bailey and Associates. Looking into the courtroom I see the dishonorable Judge Dennis Davidson presiding over the trial of "Public Enemy Number 1," Tim McDaniel. Police Chief Joseph Rumore apprehended McDaniel.

Turning down Culture Avenue, I see the Foster Smith-Mark Roberts Art Gallery. Also on the "strip" is the Homewood Metropolitan Opera House where Amy Canale can be found singing "Old Man River." The Homewood Symphony, under the direction of Dr. John Rives will tour the country playing patriotic songs of the past.

As I make the last turn of the journey I see those two men from the "health ranch" dressed in those white suits. I wonder what they want with me?

Class of '77 — History

It all began four long years ago when we entered this great education machine. When we arrived, we were well accepted and much welcomed, almost as much as Charles Manson when he arrived for his stay at Alcatraz. But I cannot truthfully compare the treatment of our class to Mr. Manson. After all, everyone knows prison food is much better.

The first real problem we faced was the issue of grades. What did they expect of us? We had never studied advanced subjects such as math, history and science. We decided to go along with them and try and so we did. I think I can honestly say that most of us studied for at least a day before the grading period ended, but to no avail. Report cards just didn't show what we had really learned. We decided something must be done so we took action immediately. That very day, the day the first report cards went out, we agreed on setting a fire in the trash can behind the freshmen lockers. Nearly every person participated, performing one of the ritual dances and chants. Some even went so far as to offer sacrifices — these being only useless textbooks. If all of us didn't really agree with this ritual, no one snitched because they knew they were "guilty by association." They were "freshmen" and nothing could be lower than that. Anyway, the ceremony was completed and the faculty called a conference. We thought they were going to accept us after all and give up their prejudice. But wrong again, they only wanted to assure us that this did not help our grades and REQUEST that we not perform the ceremony again. As I look back, I see now that we should have started the fire behind the senior lockers. After all, they were the agitators. The damper was closed tighter (if that is possible) on us after our ritual and ceremony as freshmen and would stay with us for a long time. But we really didn't give it much thought.

The rest of our "underclassmen" years went by rather quickly with some excitement here and there, but our biggest concern has passed. With a little financial aid (to our teachers) we did pass. Many people (freshmen of course) thought that our "underclassmanship" was a good luck charm to Homewood's athletic program, especially football. For our first two years, the football team had outstanding records. The last year of our "underclassmanship," 1974-75, they claimed the title of state champions.

Well by now, our "class of '77" had begun to divide a little. But no matter, it was time to become upper classmen now. Our junior year passed very quickly with a poor football season, the thrill of senior rings, and the disappointment of no junior-senior prom. It is now the fall of 1976. The time of our lives had come. We entered our senior year. The thrill and excitement of being seniors had us all hypnotized through the entire first grading period. The faculty understood so they gave us another chance. The first semester passed so quickly we thought we had just come back from Labor Day week-end when they dismissed us for the Christmas Holidays. Well, it's nearly spring now, graduation is near and everyone is getting excited again. We have had a good year really. Our sports record was nothing to crow about but we enjoyed it.

As our stay at Homewood High School draws to an end, I begin to recall many memories that our class can claim with pride such as paying the price of remaining in elementary school our seventh grade year and attending classes in Sunday School rooms our eighth grade year. Even though the last class claimed to be the first class to begin and finish at Homewood High, I feel that we are actually the first because they only attended Homewood for half of their Freshman year. We attended the whole year all four years. And no one can forget our fierce struggle to have our Senior pictures printed in color in the Annual. But as we depart, we leave Homewood High School a gift of furniture for the Patriot Lounge. Hopefully, they will remember us by this.

Our '77 senior class has done a lot of growing up. Maybe it was the realization that this is it for us at Homewood High. As I look around and see all the faces of friends I have grown up with, have shared tears and smiles with, I wonder where and what we will be in the coming years. I'm sure we left something to be remembered here. Oh, I'm sure we left some memories that are better forgotten. But in our minds, these memories will live forever. And in the files of the Homewood P.D. they will also live forever. But it's time to leave now so Goodbye Homewood High School. We Love You.

When will we ever forget?

As I look back over the year that has produced the HERITAGE of 1977, many special feelings and experiences pass through my mind. Somehow the dedication and hard work by all those connected with this publication is my most prominent thought. I could never express enough appreciation to our excellent faculty advisors, Mrs. C. R. Davis and Mrs. H. C. Dye. A student force of nineteen members also deserves special recognition. On a personal note, I would like to especially thank our three student photographers, David Kelley, Steve Mann, and Tim Mosley whose imaginative work is presented in the HERITAGE. A very special thanks is extended to Mr. Earl S. Mann, Jr. for his photography help outside the school. Mr. Tommy Norton and Mrs. Patricia Tolbert made the Miss Heritage Pageant the most successful ever. The HERITAGE staff thanks you both for your work on this important event. A collective thank you is also in order for the students and faculty of Homewood High School.

It has been both a great privilege and honor to serve as editor of the HERITAGE this year. It is my hope that the HERITAGE of 1977 will bring back special memories to each student in years to come. When will we ever forget?

Frances,

How can I say what a good friend you have been this year. Frances you are such a kind person. You really care when I'm down and when all others are down too! We have had some really good times together. Remember Alabama's Homecoming. That night set me up with Warren and I thought I was in Love. I really think I was. I had such a good time that night. And that next night ~~you~~ you spent the night at my grandmother's house & I was jealous & upset cause I saw Warren. Well I'm glad I'm now dating Chuck. Thanks to you! Remember Florida, Fort Walton. We were out walking on the balcony in our P.J.'s with the Bedsheet wrapped around us & the fire alarm went off & we didn't know which ways to go! Then Mr. Morrow came in that night cause we were giggling because I was just fixing to put ~~her~~ toothpaste in Dolly's ear. We had such a good time! Congratulations on ^{Miss} Sorority & Kios Who in Music & that other thing you got, I can't remember what it is. Frances I think you have a great personality! I'm sure you'll go as far as you want. Frances I always hope we keep in touch. I know I won't ever forget you. Maybe when you & Jordan get married (Boy Howdy! wouldn't that be great), I will come & see you become Mrs Plaster! Whoosh! If I'm invited? I better be! Only problem Warren will be there! HA HA. Frances you'll will always have a special place in my heart & I hope we will be friends forever!

Frances,

I can't believe this year is almost over. It seems too soon. But then I think back and remember all that was accomplished (and all that was passed over) But anyway!

I'm really scared about next year. I want to make the most of it too. I've enjoyed my visit at Homewood but there's not much I can do now!

You've been a special friend to me, Frances, and certainly one that will be long remembered. Please take care of yourself and have fun in college. (Better watch out for those evil college boys, too!) I hope we can stay in touch and I'll always love you. Thank you for being you.

Frances,

I haven't seen you much lately but I haven't forgotten you. Believe it or not you are a very good friend. We have had some good times and I hope they never leave. You are a crazy person, but I like it that way. So now you think you are going to graduate but I don't. Hope I see you this summer.

Frances,
 It's been a great year
 this year, but we all know that next year will be the BEST EVER at Homewood. Remember all our band trips?
 We had a great time & football games were better than ever. But all joking aside, I'll miss you next year.
 Who else will I pick on & embarrass? (just kidding). Good luck in the future & come back to see us all! OK? Have a great summer!

P.S. Party on down!
